

CAPT. SAM. GALE'S BIRTHDAY.—The Atlantic City correspondent of the Philadelphia Times makes the following mention of the birthday of Capt. Samuel Gale, who has many friends in Baltimore:

“The birthday of that popular and genial tar, Capt. Samuel Gale, owner and sailor of the yacht John E. Mehrer, was handsomely celebrated at his home, on North Baltic avenue, Monday evening. Quite a number of guests were present, who enjoyed hugely the evening's festivities, which was comprised chiefly of speech-making, recitations and vocal music, interspersed with delightful selections from Prof. Ned Howson's Band. Mayor Stoy was one of the guests. There were no “good-nights” said, but a general “good-morning,” as each guest wished the Captain many more birthdays and made their bow out.”
