

The Sun's Birthday at Atlantic City.
[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 17.—The fifty-fifth birthday of THE SUN was remembered here today by many of the citizens, who bear warm affection for their favorite newspaper. Mr. John E. Mehrer, of the Inlet House, flew flags in honor of the occasion. Capt. Samuel Gale, of the champion yacht J. E. Mehrer, flew a cloud of bunting and made a record of the event on the logbook of the vessel. Capt. Lemuel Conover, of the yacht Neptune, and Capt. Wm. Gale, of the yacht Alert, vied with the Mehrer in their display in honor of the great paper's anniversary.
